Dear General Donovan:

In connection with your letter of January 30, I have sent the copy of the note from [REDACTED] to the appropriate people. In view of her experience and background, I am sure they will be interested. Under the circumstances, I cannot be completely sure that I will know the exact outcome of her inquiry.

STATOTHR

In connection with your letter of January 7 on Lieutenant [REDACTED] we previously had received information from you on this case and also from [REDACTED]. There is interest, but under the present military situation, there will not be an early solution.

STATOTHR

Very truly yours,

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
General Counsel
